Buyers Believe Saving to Consumers Will Be as Much 25 $10,000,000,000.

CHICAGO, Oct. 11. T is the general opinion of the members of the Purchasing Agents' Association of the United States, who collectively spend about $10,000,000,000 a year, that there will be a falling off in prices, possibly as much as 50 per cent in some instances, within the next six or seven months.

A. H. Rheinhardt, Vice Chairman of the Convention Commitice, said:

"I have talked with several hundred purchasing agents, and I have yet to find one who is not buying only for immediate needs and contracts requirements. All seem to believe that the peak in prices has been reached, and that there will be a steady decline from now on."
